

STRATEGIC AND CONSULTING SERVICES

Trusted Advisor Program

Continuous nation-state grade cyber-security consulting and testing

The Need

Staying ahead of cyber threats is a necessity . The environments, the techniques and the attackers continually evolve and change, resulting in organizations struggling to stay ahead of the curve and minimize their exposure.

The Solution

An a la carte program, HolistiCyber's trusted advisor program allows you to mix and match from our nation-state grade consulting and testing services based on your organization's specific cyber-defense needs. We will also work with you on articulating and defining your specific needs.

What to Expect

- Our cyber-security experts will review and assess your current environment, policies, procedures, and security initiatives.
- We will create a custom services and tests plan that exceeds your annual and long-term security KPIs.
- We will work with you in approving and monitoring the progress of plan implementation.
- To continuously evaluate evolving threats, readiness levels, and defense mechanisms, we will serve as a sounding board for your management and security teams.
