Cybersecurity Compliance Program

Successful Compliance in an Environment of Everchanging Regulations

The Need

Regulators worldwide are mandating a proactive approach to preparation for cyberattacks and information theft and are ready to penalize those organizations who fail to comply. Thus, the multitude of global regulations and standards to which an organization must adhere to make compliance an overwhelming task, yet a critical component of any security program.

The Solution

HolistiCyber's approach to cybersecurity ensures successful compliance, while significantly increasing your company's cyber resiliency.

We deliver an innovative and comprehensive program of stepwise components, enabling organizations to meet all regulatory requirements.

What to Expect

- We address compliance holistically, developing processes to meet the various regulatory requirements in an efficient and effective manner
- We will conduct a gap analysis, comparing current performance with desired performance in all aspects of data, risk and processes.
- Based upon the results of the gap analysis, a plan tailored to your company will be developed and implemented.
